COME TO A DEAD-LOCK.

The second effort at a school board meet ing was made yesterday at 4 p. m., and re sulted in a degree of success just exactly equal to the former effort. Howard failed to put in an appearance. Some of the members are a little suspicious of Mr. Howard. According to the present count the board is composed of twelve members but there are two vacancies, leaving ten in active service. Three of these are reported to be out looking after some heat for the coming year for the new school buildings. This leaves "seven are we" an exact quorum, including Mr. Howard. All the efforts to get a meeting since the trip started by the building committee have failed, owing to the absence of Mr. Howard.

Some of those who have given the matter enough attention to be on hand for business, assert that the building committee must have had an understanding with Mr. Howard to keep shy while they were absence, so no business of any kind could be transacted. ### AMUSEMENTS.

Robt. Downing opened last night at the Crawford Grand in "Virginius" to good business. "Ignomar" will be given at matinee today and the "White Pilgrim" tonight.

It may be comforting for some of the readers to know that Mr. Downing was once an amateur, occasionally taking part in amateur performances in Washington, His friends did not tell him he was "rocky" however, or threaten to throw vegetables at him, but they recognized in him the genius that has since developed itself and ranks him already, although but little past thirty, among the foremost tragedians on the stage.

Mr. Downing in an interview made himself responsible for the bare fact only that he began as amateur. On the advice of friends he took to the stage as a business fourteen years ago, and made his first en-gagement with John Ford of Baltimore. After working very hard for four years he began playing leads and afterwards sup-ported Mary Anderson for four years. Starting out for himself his first venture was "Tally Ho," but soon realized that the legitimate tragedy offered a better field and began with Sparticus. He said: "I think a great deal of 'Virginius' and do not think there is a nobler or grander character on the stage."

Considering the hard contest for preeminence in Mr. Downing's profession his success has been phenominal and he is a young man to command such a large

It is useless to inveigh against "Starlight" which has already won popular favor in two seasons. Moreover, "Starlight" pretends to be little more than a comedy show with the brilliant Jarbeau comedy show with the brilliant Jarbeau coruscating as the central star. And, verily, Jarbeau does coruscate. There is a flash, a glitter, a sparkle in her rapid, dashing, spirited action that is like the successive gleams of an agitated jewel. She is all vivacity, irrepressibly lively, working hard at all times as though animated by an electric charge, and her heels are as nimble as they are impudent when she surrenders them to the icense of dances peculiarly characteristic of Jarof dances peculiarly characteristic of Jar-beau!—Exchange.

With Ivory Soap, as pure as snow,

The soap without compare."

There are many white soaps, each represented to be 'just as good as the 'lvory':" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

Bargain Week Keeps On.

The success of our bargain week has gone beyond anything we ever anticipated. The glorious weather has crowded the streets, and, as a natural consequence, our store has been also well filled. People saw the announcement that this was bargain week, they came on what they saw; they expected bargains-1 and bargains they got. Everything in our mammoth stock still goes at bargain prices, and we intend to make this such a week for us and our customers as was never experienced before in the history of the dry goods trade in Wichita. Bargains in Cloaks, bargains in Dress Goods, bargains in Carpets, bargains in novelties, are a few of the attractive signs which we display this week. Come in, and when you come, expect to see some bargains, and you'll not be disappointed, and you will be sure to find something that will suit you. The year is just drawing to a close. Only one more month is left after this one, and on the last day of December our grand drawing of prizes comes off. The list is still the same, and with

Grand Total of $1,353 50 CASH HENDERSON, 132 North Main Street.

DOES IT EVER STRIKE YOU that year by year the habits of people vary as to the fashions. Time was when about the only chance a man had to get a suit of clothing without paying four prices would be to haggle for an hour, and finally a spirit of compromise or fatigue would induce the contending parties to agree. Different here, and it is our proud honor to state, we were the pioneers in this system of one price. We havegone ahead of any of our competitions, and mark all our goods in PLAIN any of our compettitors, and mark all our goods in PLAIN FIGURES. True, there are some of the "How-much-will-FIGURES. True, there are some of the "How-much-will-you-give" class of clothiers, those relics of "barbaric clothing days," but their days are numbered, and ere many moons have come and gone, they will be laid away and have joined the silent majority. But talking of changes, dontcherknow it is time to change your overcoat. Has not the change in the weather suggested to you the propriety of looking at those overcoats, the merits of which we have been proclaiming all the season. Take a look at some of our fur-trimmed overcoats. They will make your mouth water. That one at $30, it is a bird. We have sold stacks of them already this season, and have stacks left. Then we have a fur-collar coat at $15 that is a "gem." but all our specialties are "gems." and of the first water is a coat—beaver cutff and collar—English obtachills, which we are selling characteristics. chinchilla, which we are selling cheaper than we did last year, notwithstanding the fact that fur and cloth have both AdVanced in price.

We have several things in underwear that would attract the attention of a connoisseur—goods that formerly went for it and $10 now can be had for about half that money. We have many of these novel effects in silk face and stripes that you cannot find in any other place in Wichits. Another thing that will interest you is our stock of Nobby Cardigans. Without a doubt we can show ten styles where you can find one elsewhere, while we show some styles that you can not find as fine in quality anywhere. We mean this and stand ready to prove it. Children grow to boys, boys puss into manhood but they must all be remembered no matter how transitory their condition. "We have small" in all shades. All the ladies will tell you "The only place to buy boy's clothing is at Bitting's," and they know you can depend upon it. Many things we would like to talk about were our space not so limited, but we must say a word about our neckwear. In this specialty we are the boss. Just look at our line and you will agree the styles are the latest. We have four in hands, windsors, tecks, dude bows, puffs in all conceivable shades in velvets, sating silks, etc.
